Dear Jimena,

My experience with this 3D project? Im stoked!

Location is one I know all too well, I live in Amsterdam. It's a great spot, lots of traffic and the perfect place for something like this.

While I was disappointed with the fact the screens were positioned as portrait, and not landscape, this pales into insignificance compared to the service, feedback and fast turnaround time of suggestions, requirements and artwork feedback from you guys. If I didn't think it was a cool concept regardless of orientation, I wouldn't have signed up anyhow! The fact it was in our home town made it a no-brainer really.

All in all, we're stoked to have been a part of this launch of new technology. It's something that we as a company and our brand GoPro share. That is, supporting new ideas and creativity. It was also awesome to see our amazing content in such a location.

So yeah, proud to have been a part of it for sure, and working with you guys along the way proved to be one of the more smooth and pleasant experiences I've had with an advertising company. Props.

Best Personal Regards,
